ART UNIT 3611

Examiner : Cassandra Davis @ 272-6642

Attention Mr./Ms. Examiner:

In response to the last communication with your mail date of 09/10/07;

We would like to ask for all claims to be prosecuted according to group 1, wherein all claims referring to a means for retaining the display's curvature are drawn to the folded tabs within a lower portion of the body as claimed in claim 14.

We would like to re-submit our request to ask for cancellation of the original claims of 1 thru 12 and to add new claims of 13 thru 16, and the withdrawal of previously submitted claims 17-18.

We had also asked for the previous abstract to be cancelled, and replaced with a new enclosed abstract to provide a more clearly written and understandable abstract, but since learned it wasn't done properly, so are re-submitting the original abstract with entire lines to be deleted within our original application's line numbering sequence; and with the properly inserted new line;,, and hopefully within the USPTO's guidelines.

We would like to go back and re-write the entire specification to correct all the bad grammar; and without adding new matter; expect to only remove all redundant "said(s)"; and since we also did not leave any space in our numbering for any lines to be inserted, we hope it is ok to use your paragraph sequence numbering from the USPTO's text in the pre-grant publication.

(We copied the html document directly from the USPTO website, and left it in the same font, and type style, etc. to make it easier for you to see all the changes of the removed "said(s)").

This will be our first attempt to make changes in this manner, as we usually just delete entire lines. If it is not done correctly, we can promptly revise it; thanks.

respectfully submitted; Terry Wagenknecht, Samuel Wagenknecht, Charles Wagenknecht
